ECUMENISM & EVANGELIZATION: SELECT BIBLIOGRAPHY

by: Dr. Marcellino D'Ambrosio

This very limited bibliography was used in a Master's level course taught in the University of Dallas's Institute of Religious and Pastoral Studies (IRPS) from 1994 to 2001. Call numbers are those of the Univ. of Dallas library. The abbreviation IRPSL means that as of 2001, the book was available also from the IRPS library. Many patristic writings and church documents can be viewed or downloaded free from a variety of world-wide-web sites. There is also a scholarly journal dedicated to ecumenism you might want to browse: Journal of Ecumenical Studies published by Temple University Press (BQT 3 .J6e35). The journal Pro Ecclesia also includes many fine articles on ecumenical issues.

Vatican II: The Real Story

By: Dr. Marcellino D'Ambrosio

Some in the Catholic Church love Vatican II because they think it finally brought the Catholic Church out of the dark ages. Some suspect the Second Vatican Council because they fear it sold out faithfulness to the truth in favor of current opinion.

Entertaining. Fascinating. Energizing. When you're done with these tapes, you'll have a clearer picture of where the Catholic Church has come from and where it is going in the first years of the new millennium.
