Don't miss the 2008 Lenten Retreat, sponsored by KAHS 1360 AM. Last year's Lenten retreat was a great spiritual preparation for Easter, and this year's event promises to be every bit as blessed! Speakers at the 2008 Lenten conference include Mr. Steven Ray and Dr. Marcellino D'Ambrosio. The presentations of Steven Ray and Marcellino D'Ambrosio have inspired countless Catholics across the country. Be sure to take advantage of your opportunity to see these talented speakers by filling out the order form found on the bottom of this flyer.

Stephen K. Ray, named after the first martyr of the Church, was born on December 29, 1954 to parents who had just become Christians through a Billy Graham Crusade. At four years old he "asked Jesus into his heart" and was "born again" according to Baptist tradition. Steve often did street evangelism, taught the Bible in various churches, and conducted a successful series of classes in his home and various Protestant churches between extended trips abroad. After being a Fundamentalist Protestant of thirty-nine years and members of various Fundamentalist and Evangelical Protestant churches, Steve Ray and his wife Janet converted to the Catholic Church on Pentecost Sunday, 1994. Prior to 1994 neither of them had—out of principle—ever set foot in a Catholic Church. Steve and Janet now attend Christ the King Parish in Ann Arbor Michigan.

Raised in Italian/Irish neighborhood in Providence, RI, Marcellino D'Ambrosio never thought about being anything else but Catholic. But like other Catholic teens, his faith was the last place he looked for fulfillment. Following in the footsteps of his parents, both professional performers in their single years, Marcellino set his sights on stardom, playing bass guitar in several popular rock bands by the time he was 16. At that time he encountered a group of Catholics whose Christian life was an exciting adventure, an adventure worth living for. So he laid his bass guitar aside and embarked on a road that led to a Ph.D. in historical theology from the Catholic University of America. Dr. D'Ambrosio's teaching has covered a broad range of subjects from historical, dogmatic, and sacramental theology to evangelization, ecumenism, and Vatican II. Yet throughout his academic career, Dr. D'Ambrosio always remained deeply involved in pastoral work, especially teen evangelization and Hispanic ministry, assuring that his teaching remained relevant to the challenges of everyday life.
